FINANCE AND TRADE.

IN THE BANKS the principal commodity to be had, in the way of news, is "ditto;" that is, take any day's news, as detailed by the banks during the last three months, "ditto" that, and you have the news of any day since. There sonly a moderate call for money, but the general opinion is, not withstanding, that money will be very close by September comes in. The balances of business houses now in the banks are not large-which, an experienced merchant tells us, is owing to heavy advances made this reason, spite of the talk to the contrary. The difficulties caused by high water necessitating extra employment of labor, will increase @210. the demand for money; for that money the banks must be looked to, unless $3.50@3.75; poor, $1.25@1.75. eastern parties who have been giving accommodations here should add to their loans.
